

Eric S. Petersen
Editor
LIGHT AND LIBERTY

Born: Boston, 1948

Raised: Bucks County, Pennsylvania

Residence: Stamford, Connecticut

Spouse: Kathryn Rhodes, Yoga Instructor

Preparatory Education: Pennsbury High School

College Education: Brown University, 1970, cum laude
Concentration in American history

Professional Education: University of Chicago Law School, 1973

Practicing Attorney: Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP, New York
Continuous practice for 30 years
Partner since 1981, a managing partner since 1985

Practice Area: Public works contracts, public finance and project finance for water, wastewater, solid waste, power and various infrastructure projects

Clients: City, county and state governments nationally, including San Diego, Phoenix, Seattle and New York

Professional Affiliations: U.S. Conference of Mayors—Urban Water Council;
National Council of Public-Private Partnerships;
International City Managers Association

Interests: Marathon Running
Meditation
International Travel

Avocation: The vision and achievements of Thomas Jefferson

Editor: Thomas Jefferson's Light and Liberty: Reflections on The Pursuit of Happiness, published by Random House